

Paul Santoriello, CMCA, PCAM, President of Taylor Management Company to be elected to lead Association

Paul Santoriello, CMCA, PCAM, President of Taylor Management Company has been elected to serve as president of the New Jersey chapter of Community Associations Institute (CAI), a nonprofit membership organization dedicated to providing education, tools and resources to the homeowner volunteer leaders and professionals who govern and manage community associations.

The New Jersey Chapter of CAI is the leader in enhancing the quality of community association living, through education, legislative advocacy and professional development.

The New Jersey Chapter of CAI is the second largest chapter in the United States. With over 2,100 members, we provide a large amount of continuous education and resources to help our members stay abreast of current community association issues and events in the State of New Jersey.

To learn more about the New Jersey chapter of CAI, visit www.cainj.org or call (609) 588-0030

CAI is a 30,000-member, national association dedicated to fostering successful community associations. Working in partnership with almost 60 state and regional chapters, CAI's mission is to inspire professionalism, effective leadership and responsible citizenship, ideals reflected in communities that are preferred places to call home. Visit the national website at www.caionline.org or call (888) 224-4321.

